

K-Love radio is an essential part of my community. My entire family listens to K-love radio; on their way to work, school, church, the grocery store; pretty much any time they are in the car. K-Love provides positive and uplifting music that our children and family members can be safe listening to. My family's daily commutes would be seriously interrupted if K'Love were no longer on the radio.